

TAIZÉ PRAYER

Taizé prayer is communal meditative prayer.

*Gathered in the presence of Christ,
we sing uncomplicated, repetitive songs,
uncluttered by too many words.*

A few words sung over and over again enhance the meditative quality of prayer, allowing an encounter with the mystery of God through the beauty of simplicity.

We invite you to quiet yourself and enter into the melody and text of the music.

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

Since we are unable to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, please join me as together we examine our conscience:

Do I recognize the face of Christ in everyone around me?

How do I respect the life and dignity of every human person?

How do I protect the dignity of others when it is being threatened?

What are the positive contributions I make in my family and in my community?

How do I recognize and respect the economic, social, political, religious and cultural rights of others?

How do I assist and defend those whose rights are disrespected?

How do I urge those in power to promote the human dignity and rights of all, especially those most vulnerable and in need?

Do I seek an easy peace with myself and a return to what I consider normal, rather than enter into the difficult work confronting my prejudices and racism?

Do I give in to the inclination to judge others rather than cultivate a desire to serve and uplift them?

How does the way I spend my time and resources reflect a genuine concern for others?

How is solidarity incorporated into my prayer and spirituality?

How do I live out my responsibility to care for God's creation?

How do I honor God in all I do and say?

THE TAIZÉ COMMUNITY

Taizé is a tiny village hidden away in the hills of Burgundy, in the eastern part of France not far from the town of Cluny. Since 1940 it has been the home of an eccumenical community of brothers whose prayer, three times each day, is at the center of their life. Today, Taizé is a place to which visitors of all ages and backgrounds come on pilgrimage, to participate in international meetings of prayer and reflection.

Brother Roger (1915-2005) first came to the village of Taizé in 1940, at the age of twenty-five. He dreamt of starting a community “on account of Christ and the Gospel,” and he chose to do so in an area, in those years, strongly marked by human distress. It was wartime, and his house became a place of welcome for refugees, especially Jews, fleeing from the Nazi occupation. After living alone for two years he was joined by his first brothers, and in 1949, when there were seven of them, they committed themselves, for life, to celibacy and to life together. Year after year, other brothers make the same monastic commitments.

At first, the community was made up of brothers from different Protestant denominations. Today it includes many Catholics as well. By its very nature, Taizé is an ecumenical community. It is also international. Its eighty or so brothers come from some twenty different countries throughout the world.

Taizé’s vocation is to strive for communion among all. From its beginnings, the community has worked for reconciliation among Christians split apart into different denominations. But the brothers do not view reconciliation among Christians as the end in itself: it concerns all of humanity, since it makes the Church a place of communion for all.
