LITURGY OF THE WORD

A reading from the Book of Genesis 9:8-15

I set my bow in the clouds to serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

God said to Noah and to his sons with him:
“See, I am now establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you and with every living creature that was with you: all the birds, and the various tame and wild animals that were with you and came out of the ark. I will establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all bodily creatures be destroyed by the waters of a flood; there shall not be another flood to devastate the earth.” God added: “This is the sign that I am giving for all ages to come, of the covenant between me and you and every living creature with you: I set my bow in the clouds to serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth, and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the covenant I have made between me and you and all living beings, so that the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all mortal beings.”

Cantor:

Assembly:

Verbum Domini. Deo gratias.
The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.
Your ways, O Lord, make known to me; teach me your paths, teach me your paths, guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior. Refrain

Remember that your compassion, O Lord, and your love are from of old. The sins of my youth and my frailties remember not; in your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O Lord. Refrain

Good and upright is the Lord; thus he shows sinners the way. He guides the humble to justice, and teaches the humble his way. Refrain

A reading from the First Letter of Saint Peter

3:18-22

Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit.

Beloved:
Christ suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit. In it he also went to preach to the spirits in prison, who had once been disobedient while God patiently waited in the days of Noah during the building of the ark, in which a few persons, eight in all, were saved through water. This prefigured baptism, which saves you now. It is not a removal of dirt from the body but an appeal to God for a clear conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark 1:12-15
This is the time of fulfillment.

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him. After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: “This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel.”

Priest / Cantor: Ver-bum Dó - mi-ni.
Assembly: Laus ti - bi, Chri-ste.

The word of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Homily (Please be seated.)

Apostles’ Creed (Please stand.)
(All bow at the words in bold.)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Meditation

I Want Jesus to Walk with Me

I want Jesus to walk with me;
I want Jesus to walk with me;
all along my pilgrim journey,
I want Jesus to walk with me.

In my trials, Lord, walk with me.
in my trials, Lord, walk with me;
when my heart is almost breaking,
I want Jesus to walk with me.

When I’m troubled, Lord, walk with me;
when I’m troubled, Lord, walk with me;
Lord, when my head is bowed in sorrow,
I want Jesus to walk with me.

Invitation to Spiritual Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

Assembly: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.
SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that you are truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things and I desire to possess You within my soul.
Since I am unable at this moment to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as being already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

-Saint Alphonsus Liguori (1696-1787)

Saint Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274) described Spiritual Communion as an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and lovingly embrace him at a time or in circumstances when we cannot receive him in Sacramental Communion.

Meditation

* Turn, turn to the living God, the God of healing and comfort, and with delight, God will turn to you. With delight, God will turn to you.

For now is the time of fulfillment. The reign of our God is at hand. Reform your life, turn from sin and believe this glorious news. Refrain

Come and return to the Lord. All you weary, bring your grieving hearts. With kindness and mercy God’s compassion will fill your hearts with love. Refrain

Have mercy, O Lord, on your people. In your goodness wipe away our guilt. Wash us clean, free us, to become your living song of praise. Refrain

PRAYER AFTER SPIRITUAL COMMUNION (Please stand)
