INTRODUCTORY RITES

Prelude

I Call to You, Lord Jesus Christ
Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)
BWV 639

Adoration

Florence B. Price (1887-1953)

Introit

Tibi dixit cor meum, * quaesivi vultum tuum,
vultum tuum Domine requiram:
ne avertas faciem tuam a me.

Dominus illuminatio mea, et salus mea: quem timebo?

My heart declared to you: “Your countenance have I sought;
I shall ever seek your countenance, O Lord;
do not turn your face from me.”
The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?

-Psalm 26:8, 9 and 1

Processional

Kyrie Eleison

The priest processes into the Sanctuary; the following refrain is repeated during the procession:

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

GREETING

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

(All strike their chest.)

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord, our God.

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

Assembly: Amen.

After the absolution, the cantor sings the Kyrie:

LITURGY OF THE WORD

A reading from the Book of Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

I will bless you abundantly.

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, “Abraham!” “Here I am!” he replied. Then God said: “Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you.”

When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD’s messenger called to him from heaven, “Abraham, Abraham!” “Here I am!” he answered. “Do not lay your hand on the boy,” said the messenger. “Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son.” As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.

Again the LORD’s messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: “I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command.”

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 116

I trusted, even when I said, “I am sorely afflicted.”

How precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful.

Your servant, Lord, your servant am I,
the son of your handmaid; you have loosened by bonds.
A thanksgiving sacrifice I make; I will call on the name of the Lord.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfill before all his people, in the courts of the house of the Lord, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Final Antiphon

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

8:31b-34

Who will bring a charge against God’s chosen ones?

Brothers and sisters:
If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God’s chosen ones? It is God who acquits us, who will condemn? Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

Gospel Acclamation (Please stand.)

From the shining cloud the Father’s voice is heard:
This is my beloved Son, listen to him.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark 1:12-15
This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, “Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.” Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

Homily (Please be seated.)
Apostles’ Creed (Please stand.)
(All bow at the words in bold.)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Intercessions

Please respond at the bidding of the cantor.

Hymn

Transform Us as You Transfigured

1. Transform us as you, transfigured,
   Stood apart on Tabor's height.

2. Transform us as you, transfigured,
   Would not stay within a shrine.

Lead us up our sacred mountains,
Keep us from our great temptation-

Search us with revealing light.
Time and truth we quickly bind.

Lift us from where we have fallen,
Lead us down those daily pathways

Full of questions, filled with fright.
Where our love is not confined.
