Greeting

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

(All strike their chest.)

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord, our God.
Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
Assembly: Amen.

After the absolution, the cantor sings the Kyrie:

LITURGY OF THE WORD

A reading from the Book of Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

I will bless you abundantly.

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, “Abraham!” “Here I am!” he replied. Then God said: “Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you.”
When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD’s messenger called to him from heaven, “Abraham, Abraham!” “Here I am!” he answered. “Do not lay your hand on the boy,” said the messenger. “Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son.” As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.
Again the LORD’s messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: “I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command.”

Cantor:

Verbum Domini.
The word of the Lord.

Assembly:

Deo gratias.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 116

I trusted, even when I said, “I am sorely afflicted.”

How precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful. Refrain

Your servant, LORD, your servant am I,
the son of your handmaid; you have loosened by bonds.

A thanksgiving sacrifice I make; I will call on the name of the LORD. Refrain

My vows to the LORD I will fulfill before all his people, in the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem. Refrain

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

8:31b-34

Who will bring a charge against God’s chosen ones?

Brothers and sisters:
If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God’s chosen ones? It is God who acquits us, who will condemn? Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

Gospel Acclamation

(Please stand.)

From the shining cloud the Father’s voice is heard:
This is my beloved Son, listen to him.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory, Savior of the world.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark 1:12-15

This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, “Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.” Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

Priest / Cantor:

Ver-bum Dó - mi-ni.

Apostles’ Creed (Please stand.)
(All bow at the words in bold.)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Intercessions

Please respond at the bidding of the cantor.

Memorial Acclamation

Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Great Amen

Amen, amen, amen.

COMMUNION RITE

The Lord’s Prayer (Please stand.)

Greeting of Peace
The Breaking of the Bread

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

Assembly: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

My Jesus,
I believe that you are truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things and I desire to possess You within my soul.
Since I am unable at this moment to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as being already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

-Saint Alphonsus Liguori (1696-1787)

Saint Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274) described Spiritual Communion as an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and lovingly embrace him at a time or in circumstances when we cannot receive him in Sacramental Communion.
Hymn

You Are the Light I Seek

1. Whom should I fear? Why should I be afraid? Lord, you are my light and salvation: a refuge from my strife. One thing I will seek from you: to dwell in your temple with the Lord, your God. Be patient of heart and have courage. Yes, wait for the Lord.

2. Walk from the dark; come to the light of God. Come to the land of the living, to the refuge from my strife. One thing I will seek from you: to dwell in your temple with the Lord, your God. Be patient of heart and have courage. Yes, wait for the Lord.

Communion Antiphon

Transfigure Us, O Lord

Tune: Bob Hurd, © OCP Publications. All rights reserved. Used with permission under OneLicense.net A-704048.

Down from heights of glory into the depths below, the love of God self-emptied, the love of God to show. You light the path before us, the way that we must go. Refrain

Light for those in darkness, the hungry have their fill, glad tidings for the humble, the healing of the ills; in these we glimpse your glory, God’s promises fulfilled. Refrain

Pardon for the sinner, a shepherd for the sheep, a drink of living water for all who thirst and seek, and feasting at your table, the lowly and the least. Refrain

To the holy city, Jerusalem, you go; your face set toward the ending, the cross to be your throne. Shall we journey with you and share your paschal road? Refrain

All depart in silence.
