INTRODUCTORY RITES

Prelude

Processional

Kyrie Eleison

The priest processes into the sanctuary; the following refrain is repeated during the procession:

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy

Greeting

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

(All strike their chest.)

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord, our God.

At the bidding of the priest, please kneel.
Priest:
May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

Assembly:
Amen.

Please stand.

Collect

After responding “Amen” to the collect, please be seated.
In those days, all the princes of Judah, the priests, and the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the LORD’s temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy. Their enemies burnt the house of God, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, set all its palaces afire, and destroyed all its precious objects. Those who escaped the sword were carried captive to Babylon, where they became servants of the king of the Chaldeans and his sons until the kingdom of the Persians came to power. All this was to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah: “Until the land has retrieved its lost sabbaths, during all the time it lies waste it shall have rest while seventy years are fulfilled.”

In the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD inspired King Cyrus of Persia to issue this proclamation throughout his kingdom, both by word of mouth and in writing: “Thus says Cyrus, king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD, the God of heaven, has given to me, and he has also charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever, therefore, among you belongs to any part of his people, let him go up, and may his God be with him!”
Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 137

By the streams of Babylon we sat and wept when we remembered Zion.
On the aspens of that land we hung up our harps. Refrain

For there our captors asked of us the lyrics of our songs, and our despoilers urged us to be joyous: “Sing for us the songs of Zion!” Refrain

How could we sing a song of the Lord in a foreign land?
If I forget you, Jerusalem, may my right hand be forgotten! Refrain

May my tongue cleave to my palate if I remember you not,
If I place not Jerusalem ahead of my joy. Refrain

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians

2:4-10

We are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus.

Brothers and sisters:
God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ—by grace you have been saved—, raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come He might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

Cantor:
Verbum Domini.

Assembly:
Deo gratias.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (Please stand.)

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory, Savior of the world.

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John 3:14-21

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned.

Jesus said to Nicodemus:
“Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.”

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.

Verbum Domini. Laus ti-bi, Chri-ste.

The word of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

HOMILY (Please be seated.)
Apostles’ Creed (Please stand.)

(All bow at the words in bold.)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Intercessions

Please respond at the bidding of the cantor.

Hear, O Lord, enfold us in your mercy.

Preparation of the Altar & the Gifts

Please stand at the bidding of the priest.

Meditation

Turn Our Hearts Around

Turn our hearts around. Turn our hearts around.
Flood our souls completely, wash us in your love.
Turn our hearts around. Turn our hearts around.
Hold us in your mercy, change us with your love.

We cry out for you to heal and to set us free.
Bring us back. Turn our hearts around.

We have wandered and lost our way in life’s wilderness.
Bring us back. Turn our hearts around.

We have hungered for many things that are not from you.
Bring us back. Turn our hearts around.

Prayer over the Offerings

Priest: Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

Assembly: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Eucharistic Prayer

Priest: The Lord be with you.
Assembly: And with your spirit.
Priest: Lift up your hearts.
Assembly: We lift them up to the Lord.
Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
Assembly: It is right and just.
Preface Acclamation

Please kneel.

COMMUNION RITE

The Lord’s Prayer (Please stand.)

Greeting of Peace

The Breaking of the Bread

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: misere-re nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: misere-re nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona nobis pacem.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Setting: Vatican Edition VIII.

Please kneel.

Invitation to Spiritual Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

Assembly: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.
Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that you are truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things and I desire to possess You within my soul.
Since I am unable at this moment to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as being already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

-Saint Alphonsus Liguori (1696-1787)

Saint Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274) described Spiritual Communion as an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and lovingly embrace him at a time or in circumstances when we cannot receive him in Sacramental Communion.

Meditation

God So Loved the World

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son that whoever believes in him shall never die, but have eternal life.

God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

God sent a holy light into the world, and we sought the dark, but Jesus calls us to follow him.

All who seek the truth, come into the light!
Make clear that your deeds are done in God!

Prayer after Spiritual Communion (Please stand.)
CONCLUDING RITE

Blessing and Sending

Hymn during Distribution of Communion

Christ in me arise and dispel all the darkness.
Christ in me arise with your power and your strength.
Christ in me pour out your blessing and healing.
Christ in me arise and I shall rise with you.

Be now my vision; open these eyes, showing me all that I must see.
Onward to the kingdom, you are the way.
Arise in me and I shall rise with you.

Be now my footsteps, leading the way, taking me where I must go.
Onward to the kingdom, you are the way.
Arise in me and I shall rise with you.

You know my heart and you know my ways,
you who formed me in my mother's womb.
I live and move in you, my whole being thrives in you.
