INTRODUCTORY RITES

Prelude

When Irish Eyes Are Smiling
James Last (1929-2015) / Ernest Ball (1878–1927)

The service begins as the priest processes to the entrance of the church. Calling to mind Mary’s baptism and entrance into the Christian community, we now receive her remains and commend her to the Lord.

Please stand and turn, as you are able, toward the entrance of the church.

Greeting

Priest: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Assembly: Amen.

Priest: The Lord be with you.
Assembly: And with your spirit.

Lord of All Hopefulness

1. Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy,
2. Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith,
3. Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace,
4. Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm,

Whose trust, ever child-like, no cares can destroy,
Whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe,
Your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace,
Whose voice is contentment, whose presence is balm,

Be there at our waking, and give us, we pray,
Be there at our labors, and give us, we pray,
Be there at our homing, and give us, we pray,
Be there at our sleeping, and give us, we pray,

Your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.
Your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.
Your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.
Your peace in our hearts, Lord, at the end of the day.

COLLECT (Opening Prayer)
A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes

For everything, there is an appointed time, and a time for every affair under the heavens. A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant. A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to tear down, and a time to build. A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance. A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them; a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces. A time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away. A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to be silent, and a time to speak. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. God has made everything beautiful in its time.

Lector: The word of the Lord.
Assembly: Thanks be to God.
Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 91

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord,
who abide in his shadow for life,
say to the Lord: “My refuge,
my rock in whom I trust!”

Refrain

The snare of the fowler will never capture you,
and famine will bring you no fear:
under his wings your refuge,
his faithfulness your shield.

Refrain

For to his angels he’s given a command
to guard you in all of your ways;
upon their hands they will bear you up,
lest you dash your foot against a stone.

Refrain

And he will raise you up on eagle’s wings,
bear you on the breath of dawn, make you to shine like the sun,
and hold you in the palm of his hand.

The snare of the fowler will never capture you,
and famine will bring you no fear:
under his wings your refuge,
his faithfulness your shield.

We were gentle among you, as a nursing mother cares for her children. With such affection for you, we were determined to share with you not only the gospel of God, but our very selves as well, so dearly beloved had you become to us, exhorting and encouraging you and insisting that you conduct yourselves as worthy of the God who calls you into his kingdom and glory. And for this reason, we too give thanks to God unceasingly, that, in receiving the word of God from hearing us, you received not a human word but, as it truly is, the word of God, which is now at work in you who believe.

Lector: The word of the Lord.
Assembly: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord. whoever believes in me, even if she dies, will live.

A reading from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John 16:20-23

Your hearts will rejoice.

Priest: The Lord be with you.
Assembly: And with your spirit.
Priest: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.
Assembly: Glory to you, O Lord.
Jesus said, Amen, amen, I say to you, you will weep and mourn, while the world rejoices; you will grieve, but your grief will become joy. When a woman is in labor, she is in anguish because her hour has arrived; but when she has given birth to a child, she no longer remembers the pain because of her joy that a child has been born into the world. So you also are now in anguish. But I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you. On that day you will not question me about anything. Amen, amen, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you.

For the Church throughout the world, for Pope Francis, Archbishop Hebda and Bishop Williams, our priests, and deacons, for all religious communities, and for the entire people of God. Let us pray to the Lord!

Assembly: Lord, hear our prayer.

For an end to all wars and civil unrest, especially in the Ukraine for respect among nations, and for peace in every land, city, home, and heart, let us pray to the Lord!

Assembly: Lord, hear our prayer.

For a conversion of heart of those who cultivate violence and perpetuate hatred, and for the celebration of the rich diversity. Let us pray to the Lord!

Assembly: Lord, hear our prayer.

For the underserved and marginalized, those who go without food, shelter, clothing, health care, employment and most especially companionship, for acknowledgment of their dignity in the human family and support for them in our faith and civic communities. Let us pray to the Lord!

Assembly: Lord, hear our prayer.

For all the people, especially for members of our families, who are sick and suffering in body, mind, or soul and for all those who love them and care for them, let us pray to the Lord!

Assembly: Lord, hear our prayer.

For the family and the friends of Mary, for consolation in our grief, let us pray to the Lord!

Assembly: Lord, hear our prayer.

For Mary and for all our beloved family members and friends who have gone before us, that one day we may all be reunited in Heaven, let us pray to the Lord!

Assembly: Lord, hear our prayer.

Please be seated at the bidding of the priest.

COMMUNION PROCESSION

Meditation    Panis Angelicus

Panis angelicus
fit panis hominum;
Dat panis coelica
figuris terminum:
O res mirabilis!
Manducat Dominum
Pauper, servus et humilis.
Te trina Deitas
unaque poscimus:
Sic nos tu visita,
sicut te colimus;
Per tuas semitas
duc nos quo tendimus,
Ad lucem quam inhabitas.
Amen.

The angelic bread
becomes the bread of men;
The heavenly bread
ends all prefigurations:
What wonder!
The Lord is eaten
by a poor and humble servant.
Triune God,
We beg of you:
visit us,
just as we worship you.
By your ways,
lead us where we are heading,
to the light in which you dwell.
Amen.

Meditation    Be Not Afraid

Be not a-fraid. I go be-fore you al-ways.

Come, fol-low me, and I will give you rest.

Immediately following the repast, there will be a private burial at Resurrection Cemetery, Mendota Heights, MN

1. Sing with all the saints in glory, Sing the resurrection song! Death and sorrow, earth’s dark story, once was dead. Shout with joy, O deathless voices! Joy unknown, When, amid earth’s closing thunders, to the former days belong. All around the Child of God, lift up your head! Patriarchs from Saints shall stand before the throne! Oh, to enter clouds are breaking, Soon the storms of time shall cease; distant ages, Saints all longing for their heav’n, that bright portal, See that glowing firmament, In God’s likeness we awaken, Prophets, psalmists, seers, and sages, Know, with you, O God immortal, Knowing ever lasting peace. All await the glory given. Jesus Christ whom you have sent!

Tune: HYMN TO JOY, 8 7 8 7 D; arr. from Ludwig van Beethoven, 1770-1827, by Edward Hodges, 1796-1867.
“Very soon I will stand before the ultimate judge of my life. Although I may have many reasons for fear and fear when I look back on my long life, I am however happy because I firmly believe that the Lord is not only the righteous judge, but also the friend and brother who (has) already suffered Himself…

In view of the judgment hour, the grace of being a Christian becomes evident to me. Being a Christian gives me the knowledge and more so (the) friendship with the Judge of my life and allows me to (walk) confidently…

Dear friends, with these sentiments I bless you all.”
